

CCPA Sponsorship Policies

The Connecticut Community Providers Association welcomes those who wish to participate in our various advertising and sponsorship opportunities, and would like to thank you for your interest in supporting CCPA. Your contribution will truly assist CCPA in achieving its overall mission: to be a unified voice for community human service providers.

CCPA retains the right to exercise control over the content of its publications in order to fulfill its legal obligations and mission. All advertising is subject to Association approval. Consequently, the Association reserves the right to reject or cancel advertisements in its publications for any reason at any time. Placement of ads will be at CCPA's discretion.

Publication of an advertisement does not constitute endorsement or approval of any products or services advertised, any point of view, standard or opinion presented therein. CCPA is not responsible for any claims made in an advertisement appearing in its publications.

The advertiser assumes all liability for all ad content including text preparations and illustrations. Advertiser claims for errors will be decided on a case-by-case basis with discounts offered for the advertisement in question if it is determined that CCPA made the error and that the error seriously affected the advertising results.
