About the Presenter...

James Wietrak retired on July 1, 2009 from the Department of Social Services. During his 25 years at DSS, he held the positions of Acting Deputy Commissioner of Administration, Director of Quality Assurance and Administrative Accounts Examiner. For the last 20 of those 25 years, he managed or directed the audits of Medicaid providers. In addition, he also directed the department's fraud detection and prevention efforts, third party liability collections, asset recoveries, contract and internal audits and quality control programs. He also designed and managed the department's Data Warehouse and Decision Support System.

Mr. Wietrak is a Certified Public Accountant and a Certified Fraud Examiner.

In 2009, he received the State Managers Distinguished Managerial Award.

About Tobin, Carberry, O'Malley, Riley & Selinger, P.C. (TCORS)

TCORS, in practice since 1963, currently represents hospitals throughout Connecticut. Securing government reimbursement for indigent patients under the SAGA and Medicaid programs has been the principal focus of TCORS' hospital practice. TCORS prosecutes appeals under the State Medicaid programs to recover payment for the hospital care. The firm has tried numerous administrative appeals and court cases in every judicial district in Connecticut, successfully securing millions of dollars in reimbursements for their clients. They also monitor and facilitate the administrative process for payment from the state. TCORS has offices in New London and in Hartford, Connecticut. Visit them online at <http://www.tcors.com>.

About CCPA...
